About Kramer Levin's Women's Initiative Committee:

Kramer Levin is committed to providing its women attorneys with the opportunity, professional development and support to build successful practices and become leaders both inside and outside of the office. The firm works hard to address issues of importance to its women attorneys and clients, and continues to offer programs and experiences to support their development and advancement. Multicultural Law Magazine selected Kramer Levin as one of the "Top 100 Law Firms for Women" for the last six consecutive years, and the firm has been named by Vault as a "Top 25 Best Law Firm for Women" for the last two consecutive years. The Women's Initiative Committee recently launched a firm-wide awareness and fundraising campaign in support of Global Fund for Women. Through a series of firm-wide programs and fundraising initiatives, the Committee has raised awareness concerning the human rights of women and girls worldwide and the importance of the education of women and girls in developing countries. Countless studies have demonstrated that educating and empowering women and girls in the developing world has transformative effects on entire communities and economies. The women of Kramer Levin invite you to celebrate our shared commitment to the advancement of women.
